ACTU 'Organising Works' Program

- Unique opportunity to get involved in the Australian Union Movement.
- Places available in NSW, VIC, WA & possibly QLD.

The Australian Council of Trade Unions (ACTU) is offering an amazing opportunity to work for the Australian Union Movement, whilst completing a comprehensive training program. We are seeking people who are committed to pursuing the rights of all working Australians, whether young or old, male or female, or from a culturally or linguistically diverse background. If you answer 'yes' to any of the following questions, make sure you apply:

- Do you want to make a real difference to workers and their rights?
- Are you a strong supporter of social justice in Australia?
- Do you have the ability to motivate and inspire others to stand up for themselves?
- Are you a good listener?
- Do you have good written and oral communication skills?

Each year, the ACTU offers a limited number of activists an opportunity to join our 'Organising Works' program. The program encompasses on-the-job training with an Australian Union, and ten (10) months of formal ACTU training to achieve the Certificate IV in Unionism & Industrial Relations. The formal program will commence in February/March 2012.

This is your chance to get involved in the union movement!

Applicants should demonstrate their commitment to union values and their ability to organise others to stand up for their rights, and describe how they have organised events, activities or others in pursuit of social justice goals.

All applicants must submit the OW 2012 Participant Application Form.
